Incident Summary: Update:

On 11/09/19, at 8:25PM, the victim was walking in the 3500 block of Norwood St. Columbus, Ohio 43224. He was accosted by two male black teens who forced him to go between the houses where they removed property and clothing from him under duress. The suspects were armed with handguns which they threatened to shoot him with if he resisted.

Investigation of this armed robbery led to the identification of the listed suspect. He was arrested on 11/21/19. A second suspect is still at large and the Columbus Police Robbery Unit is looking for information as to the 2nd suspect's identity.

(Listed above named arrestee was the subject of media reports the week of 11-10-19 when Columbus news outlets reported he'd sustained two gunshot wounds, from two separate incidents, over the course of a one week time period.)
